MAYOR'S ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- We had a follow up telephone conversation with the Ridge Hill Committee; tried to get a better understanding of dates involved; construction plans are at the State; we are expecting approvals from the State any day now. They have to file the final plans which are due right around today and then we have to get the State approval; We have people on board to push the State to move those along. Right now we are still targeting late summer for getting the bids in and starting the work; It's a really tight schedule as of now; we have to spend the money by next March and we are going forward with everybody being very vigilant with sticking with those dates
- Met with Village Manager to get the preliminary budget; the manger's final budget will be posted this week and so far it's looking good; We have a new philosophy with the Village Manager and we will see who comes out ahead; numbers look good

- Public announcement issued today on the pothole killer; joint venture of the various Town/Villages; Town of Greenburgh and Sleepy Hollow gave positive feedback; we will see if the test of this is if the patch is more effective than cold patch used in the past; we only had it for a few hours. There was an article posted on the TV in Hoboken; they interviewed the Mayor and the driver of the truck and once you learn the technique for operating it, on average where it would take a day to fill approximately 50 potholes, he can now fill 200 potholes. Very impressive.
